THE TOWN'S FINANCES

Kentucky statutes require all spenders of public funds to make a yearly itemized statement of their receipts and expenditures and publish said statement in the local newspaper for the information of the public.

In compliance with the law of the State the Town Board of West Liberty in this issue of the Courier presents its report for the year ending December 31, 1938.

All the notes and accounts owing to Fairbanks & Morse on the town's water pump, at the beginning of 1938 have been paid as has also the amount owing to the secretary and treasurer. The board has created no new obligations during the year and has a balance in its treasury of $117.25.

The Board worked practically the whole year in working up a WPA waterworks project. This project has been several times approved only to meet with delay on some minor details of construction.

The present water distributing system is expensive. Something must be done about it. Should the WPA project fail some other steps must be taken to put this water supply system on a different basis. But it must not fail. And we are given full assurance that it will not.

DOGS OR PROSPERITY

We understand that the dog population of Wolfe county is around 2000 head, and that the sheep population is only 300 or 400 head. We are also informed that we have more dogs than hogs, and that any kind of a dog will consume as much food as an ordinary hog.

Many leading farmers are of the opinion that Wolfe county could handle thousands of sheep and that the income from sheep could be as much as $100,000. The best sheep authorities of the state, those men who have made the Blue Grass section of Kentucky one of the outstanding sheep producing sections of the nation, are of the opinion that sheep raising should be the main farming activity of the mountains of Kentucky, and that sheep would put the mountain farmer on his feet.

Our leading farmers here in Wolfe county say they would like to start into the sheep raising business, and that they know they could make more easy clear money from sheep than from any other phase of farming, but that they cannot undertake to raise sheep because of SHEEP KILLING DOGS.

If the farmers of the county know that sheep raising is a paying proposition and would enable farmers to increase their income each year by $100,000 or more, are the citizens going to let dogs be the obstacle that will prevent them from making a success at farming? All people love dogs and like to have them around, but we cannot imagine any one loving a SHEEP KILLER. If a man has a dog and does not love it enough to keep it at home, feed it and care for it so that it will not wander over the country killing poultry and livestock all we can say is, that he should not have a dog. We believe any reasonable man will agree to this statement.

Hunting dogs should not be permitted to hunt by themselves. We realize that fox hounds sometimes get lost, but we are of the opinion that if hounds were properly fed and cared for that they would return home for food instead of visiting some farmer's flock of sheep.

We cannot imagine mountain men not having ambition, and courage enough to overcome such a small obstacle as sheep killing dogs. We ask that all citizens of Wolfe county who would like to see all farmers prosper and make a success at farming, give this matter some thought. ARE WE WILLING TO COOPERATE TO CONTROL THE DOG PROBLEM SO THAT OUR FARMERS CAN INCREASE THEIR INCOME BY $100,000?

Chicken Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Burton entertained the following guests with a delicious chicken dinner Friday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spencer of Winchester; Misses Jean and Delma Stacy, Oma and Maxine Zornes, Emily Spencer, and Oakley Benton, all of Cannel City. They all attended the West Liberty-Cannel City basketball game.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Morgan county is known throughout the state as a good agricultural county and that is very true. They say that I am a good farmer and for this reason I have a desire to represent this district as a member of the Legislature for this term of office. A number of substantial citizens of Morgan county say I am a "logical candidate" and are insistent that I let the voters elect me to this office.

I am now earnestly soliciting your influence and vote. As to my qualifications I suppose I will be about an average compared with the past members elected from this county, as my eye-sight is good, my hearing, perfect, and I can write my name across my pay check as quickly as any one down there. My college hours have been neglected, but I have associated with the people of our district and state enough to know our needs and stand out for them.

As to my personal appearance I guess I don't look so much like a "hant." For I married one of the best looking girls that our county ever produced and she's a Democrat. My Democracy is never questioned the "year round" and it has been a real pleasure to support the Democratic party through all these years that I have been voting.

As to who I am and to my morals I am perfectly willing for you to make this inquiry and investigation as I expect to make this race upon my own merits.

So here it is with you, tell your wife, your friends, and neighbors, that I will appreciate your support, and if you think I will make you a good member tell others about it. I am making one promise—that I will serve you as best I know, and at all times will be glad to have suggestions and communications from you.

Trusting that I will have the pleasure of seeing as many of you as possible and that you will win this race for me.

Yours very truly,

SAM D. CECIL

P. S. I do not intend to fool any one. So, if any voter thinks that I will support any wet issue he will get fooled in that, as I am as dry as a man could be, and the only way any one else could be dryer is to be older than me and have my record.

Yours,

SAM D. CECIL

REFUSE LIQUOR ADS

The Courier has an exchange arrangement with 35 Kentucky weekly papers. A few weeks ago a prominent advertising agency in New York City sent out, presumably to all of these papers an advertising order averaging about $75.00 to each paper. The order was for beer advertising.

The Licking Valley Courier and the following papers refused to run the ads on moral grounds: Citizen, Berea; Clay City Times, Clay City; Jackson County Sun, McKee; East Kentucky Journal, Grayson; Mt. Sterling Gazette, Mt. Sterling; Russell Times, Russell; Sentinel Echo, London; Tri-City News, Cumberland; Wolfe Co. Herald, Camp-ton.

It is possible that we have missed some paper which deserves to be included in this list. Or we may have included one or more papers, which may insert the advertising on some other date. We shall be glad to make such corrections to this list which may be necessary to have it absolutely correct.

SEED BED FERTILIZER

Because they carry disease, tobacco stalks should not be used to fertilize tobacco beds, says Prof. E. J. Kinney in a circular of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture on the production of burley. He recommends the use of fertilizers, however, even though extra fertile land has been selected for the bed. The fertilizer should contain at least 3 percent nitrogen. Little or no potash is required where beds are burned, but it should be included where beds are steamed. Three to four pounds of fertilizer per 100 square feet of bed is a liberal application; it is not advisable to use more than 5 pounds on any soil in Kentucky. The fertilizer should be applied after the bed is burned or steamed, and raked into the soil. The circular, which deals with all phases of growing and curing burley tobacco, has been revised, and copies may be had from county agents or by writing to the college.

A GOOD LAW

The House Ways and Means Committee Tuesday approved legislation to "subject all government employees, Federal, State and municipal, to Federal income taxes. The legislation was recommended by President Roosevelt in a tax message several weeks ago, and there has been quite a lot of speculation as to what Congress would do on the question of imposing a tax on its own members, no matter how just it may be. The News thinks it knows what it will do: it will vote the tax. It may try devious methods of killing the legislation before it gets to a vote, but if there is ever a roll call on it, no Congressman is going to have the hardihood to vote against it, and then ask a tax-burdened people to re-elect him. He would rather pay the tax and return to them as a fellow sufferer. It would give him a sort of common ground of approach, and another thing is that he would be a martyr because he did it to himself. The fact is that he didn't really do it, because the legislation had its inception with President Roosevelt.

For years and years, The News has contended that all public officials should pay federal income taxes. In the first place, most of them make their money easier than persons in private life, and secondly, as to federal officials and employees, they should, above all others, be required to pay their part toward the support of the government which supports them. Governor Chandler contended for that principle in the enactment of the State income tax law, and it was adopted by the General Assembly, and upheld by the courts. It is the same principle for which the President is contending in Congress, and a good start has been made toward its adoption.—Elizabethtown News.

THE LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Cannel City Union Church met with Mrs. Inez Donovan, February 2, 1939. Members present were: Mrs. J. D. Whiteaker, Mrs. A. C. Carter, Mrs. Inez Donovan, Mrs. Tom Davis, Mrs. Lonnie Patrick, Mrs. Glen Walton, Mrs. Clyde Wells and Miss Sally Minor. Visitors were Miss Hallie Mae Donovan and Miss Coleen Patrick.

The president took charge of the meeting. The songs sung were, "Amazing Grace" and "What a Friend." Mrs. Donovan read as devotional, Psalm 23. Mrs. Whiteaker led in the Lord's prayer in which all joined. Work was begun on the quilt top and quite a bit of work was accomplished.

During the social hour the hostess assisted by Miss Minor and Mrs. Wells served delicious refreshments of jello topped with fruit and cookies. After a very pleasant afternoon we adjourned to meet with Miss Sally Minor on February 16.

MRS. J. C. WELLS, Secretary

Home Burns

The residence of Clay Byrd near Index was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Byrd is in the hospital here and Mrs. Byrd was away from home. There are eight children in the family who were at home at the time of the fire. Fire caught from the kitchen stove. Neighbors and passers along the highway were able to save some of the furniture and other contents in the house.

Enjoyed Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Slone and children, Jackie and Norma Jean, of Georgetown, returned home Saturday from a motor tour of Florida and other southern states. They reported a fine time and that they enjoyed the climate very much.

Supervisors at Work

The County Board of Supervisors, Lee Bayes, A. C. Sexton, and Russell Cox, are working on the tax assessments of the county this week, with the idea of evening up the assessments of the various properties of the county.

Sorry

Several timely articles by Doctor Byrd, one by Mr. Byars and some country correspondence have been crowded out of the paper this week by our advertisers.

Everything comes to him who waits; But here's a plan that's slicker; The person who goes after what he wants Will get it that much quicker.

Miss Anna Lee Mathis of Louisville is visiting friends in town.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Almost any citizen will admit that any tax that he pays is "burdensome."

A brain-worker is a person who requires six hours to get ready for two hours' work.

Now is the time for all good citizens to make their plans for flowers to bloom in the spring.

Very often, we have an idea that we would like to get across, but this is no place to print it.

The world would be much improved if most public speeches were only private speeches.

Any chronic complainer will admit that a well-advised ailment is a safeguard against overwork.

If your friends do not hurt you, your enemies will probably have no opportunity to injure you.

We see where some bright newspaper writer has concluded that Germany and Italy have an alliance.

Society presents no greater tragedy than an individual anxious to earn a living but unable to land a job.

Business is expected to be better in 1939 and to improve in 1940. Pessimists are wondering what will follow.

One way to avoid arguments is to remember that smart individuals rarely waste time trying to convince fools.

Self-help is a great ideal but sometimes it will not work out individual problems without assistance from others.

The purpose of education is to enable individuals to live more completely. Among other things, this requires a job.

While the Government can do much to help American farmers, any individual farmer can do much more to help himself.

As far as we are concerned, it would be fine if we could invent something that would bring us in a million dollars in royalties.

Any individual who is interested solely in the success of an organization or a cause, regardless of the truth, is a blind partisan.

Whenever the people of any city get the idea that it is good solely for the promotion of business interests, there is trouble ahead.

One resident of West Liberty says she would trade more in West Liberty if the merchants here advertised what they had to sell.

Mexico may be raising the standard of living for millions of its people but what is that compared to seizing some American properties?

Isolation in world affairs is based upon the theory that the United States, the world's richest nation is too good to play with the bad boys.

The lives of some dogs are not to be compared with the lives of some children in the families that make up the bottom factor of our national economic scale.

The day that the entire truth becomes known, as many believe it will, will be commemorated by the largest number of fights ever staged in the world on a single day.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Manford Williams is in the hospital with a fractured skull sustained on a WPA job at White Oak.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haney at Malone, Wednesday, February 8, 1939, a boy—Larry Ray.

Devey Allen of White Oak is in the hospital with a back injury.

Miss Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathie Wells at Licking, who was in the hospital with appendicitis, was discharged Monday.

Mrs. Harlan Acree of Blaze was brought to the hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

Changed Mind

Philadelphia.—Pulling the mask from his face while a holdup was in progress, one of the holdup men declared, "I'm not going to have anything to do with this." So saying he departed. The other man, however, proceeded to finish the job and robbed the grocery store of Daniel Belinsky of $32.

MORRIS

W. Henry Morris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Morris of Stacy Fork, departed this life February 6, 1939, at 3:30 p.m. He was born September 24, 1922; died at the age of 16 years, 4 months, and 13 days.

Junior had been ill all his life with heart trouble; but hadn't been ill in the past four years until last fall when he was taken ill again. He was attending school here at Stacy Fork at the time. Since then he was unable to be out again.

He was the type of boy that was loved by every one who knew him and you would meet him every day alike; always with a smile and a kind word for all. He was well known and widely related. He will be greatly missed by all his neighbors and friends as well as his family and relatives. He was born here and lived his life here in this community. Besides his parents, the deceased is survived by Mrs. Millard J. Hoover of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Orval Stricklin, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Edgar Wells, West Liberty; Clarence Morris of Ashland; Cletis Morris of here; and Herbert and Woodrow Morris at home.

He leaves a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

The funeral services were conducted at the home of Rev. B. T. Morris at Caneys, on February 7, at 2:00 p.m., by Revs. Morris and Buddy Benton of Cannel City. Burial followed in the Morris cemetery at Caneys.

I cannot say, and I will not say That he is dead. He is just away! With a cheery smile and a wave of a hand, He has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair

It need must be, since he lingers there. Think of him going on, as dear In love of there, as the love of here Where'er He sees a smile too bright He bears it to that world of light; Or heart too pure for taint and vice

To dwell in paradise. Mild and gentle, as he was brave, When the sweetest love of his life he gave. Think of him still as the same, I say; He is not dead—he is just away!

FARMERS' COLUMN

KENTUCKY FARM NEWS

The Morgantown bank is advancing funds in order that farmers can bury fertilizer and seed to earn soil building allowances. Assistance also is being given in the use of inventories and accounts. Bank directors attend farm meetings.

A revised circular of the Kentucky College of Agriculture dealing with stomach worms in sheep advises farmers to plan crops that will help provide pasture rotation. Hay fields, grain stubble, corn fields and forage crops may be used in the rotation.

A dairy improvement program in Taylor county includes the addition of several thousand cows and the use of purebred sires. Bull rings have been proposed whereby members would get the use of five sires for the price of one.

A horticultural program in Jefferson county provides for monthly meetings of fruit growers to discuss seasonal problems, and cooperation with the Western Kentucky Experiment Substation at Princeton in a study of insects and diseases.

Surveys made at farm meetings in Allen county indicated that 95 percent of the farmers favor a tobacco control program, and propose to stay within their acreage allotments in the Agricultural Conservation program.

An Adair county improvement program for the year includes the cooperation of 25 farmers in testing the value of hybrid corn; 26 farmers to try new practices on other crops, and 24 men and women to conduct demonstrations in raising better poultry.

TREE SEEDLINGS

A dollar a thousand for tree seedlings to set on worn land, is announced by the Division of Forestry, Department of Conservation, Frankfort, Ky. Included in the list of species available is black locust, considered by W. E. Jackson, Jr., extension forester for the Kentucky College of Agriculture, as possibly the best tree to grow on worn, depleted land.

Jackson says trees can be set anytime now before the buds begin to swell. He recommends spring planting. A small amount of complete fertilizer will help the young seedlings get established. Farmers buying and setting trees can get the credit in the Agricultural Conservation program.

GOOD CORN YIELD

Fifty bushels of corn to the acre where only swamp grass grew before tile drainage was installed, is reported by J. H. Wolfe of Rockcastle county, Ky. Seventeen hundred feet of tile were laid in 1935 at a cost of $130, plans being furnished by the extension division of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

The land then was treated with limestone and superphosphate, and for two years planted to corn. Each year's production averaged 50 bushels to the acre. In 1938 the field was seeded to oats and korean lespedeza. The oats were cut for hay, and 18 cattle pastured on the lespedeza from July until frost, with the exception of two weeks in August.

FEED TURKEY HENS

It is time to begin to feed a laying mash to turkey hens, in order to increase egg production for the hatching season, says J. E. Humphrey of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. There are good laying mashes on the market, or one can be made at home of 200 pounds of mixed wheat feed, 200 pounds of ground yellow corn, 100 pounds of meat scrap or high-tankage, and 5 pounds of salt. Keep in a self-feeder before the birds. Better fertility and hatchability will be had if a quart of fish liver oil is added to each 100 pounds of mash. An average sized turkey hen will eat about a half-pound of mash and grain daily, and a mature tom about a pound. Oyster-shell or limestone should be kept before the turkeys.

WASHINGTON NOTES

Fleet

Last week the United States fleet took up station in the South Atlantic and the Caribbean, carrying out the first phase of the extensive winter maneuvers. Over an area from Norfolk to the Canal Zone and from Cuba to the Virgin Islands, about two thousand miles by one thousand miles, there were craft of every type assembled to navigate the air, the surface of the sea and under the water. Later in February, the fleet will be divided into two forces for a realistic "war game," which will include an attack upon the defenses to test the ability of an enemy to approach the Panama Canal.

Television

Television will transmit the inauguration of the next president, according to an announcement by the National Broadcasting Company, Co., made during a demonstration in Washington.

Students

During the current academic year, the NYA is assisting 87,886 students to continue their work in colleges and universities. The average amount received by students in November was $12.11.

Big Game

The first "census" of big game animals in this country has been made by the Bureau of Biological Survey, which reports 4,500,000 deer, 165,000 elk, 130,000 antelope, 81,000 black bears, 43,000 pecaries, 17,000 bighorn sheep, 13,000 goats, 4,100 buffalo, 1,100 grizzly bears, and 700 European wild boars. The survey was made in cooperation with the National Farm Survey, Forest Service, State Game and Conservation Commissions and other informed quarters.

Trade Balance

Figures for 1938 reveal that our foreign trade balance amounted to $1,133,567,000, the largest total since 1921 (which was another year of depression). In other words, during the last twelve months, this country piled up a merchandise credit greater than that for the four years of 1934 thru 1937. Exports in 1938 held the 1937 physical volume but declined eight percent in value. Imports were reduced twenty-nine per cent in volume and thirty-six per cent in value.

Across the Atlantic

After nine years of discussion among a half a dozen governments plans are rapidly proceeding for American companies to carry air passengers across the North Atlantic to France. The recent announcement of the British Imperial Airways that it would begin a service from England to Montreal in June has been interpreted as meaning that the British Government is not going to make reciprocal arrangements with American companies. Consequently, permits were asked of France which recently granted them for six months limiting flights to four round trips a week. Six or more planes are being made ready for the Atlantic service which will connect New York and Marseilles, France, by way of the Azores Islands.

Over Subscribed

When the Treasury, in the last days of January, offered about $100,000,000 of one and three-eighths per cent. U. S. Housing Authority notes, the public response was a subscription nearly twenty-eight times as great as the issue. This is a new high record for any security offered publicly through the Treasury. The notes are guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Government and are exempt from all taxation.

Mexican Inquiry

A resolution has been introduced in the House by Representative Martin J. Kennedy, of New York, proposing that $30,000 be made available to a committee of seven members, to investigate conditions in Mexico. The inquiry by the House would be an "exercise of its constitutional rights and the performance of its constitutional duty." While some pressure may be brought for the passage of this resolution by interested groups in the United States, it is not likely to pass.

Impeachment

Little attention is being paid to the resolution of Representative Thomas, of New Jersey, calling for an investigation to determine whether Secretary Perkins and two other officials of the Labor Department, should be impeached in connection with a "failure" to enforce the immigration laws. In fact, the resolution has reacted somewhat favorably to Miss Perkins.

Miss Ollie Triplett left for Cincinnati Thursday, February 16, where she has employment. Her many friends wish her well wherever she may be.

The plant of the Beattyville Enterprise is out of commission and will be for some weeks due to the flood. Arrangements have been made with the Estill Herald of Irvine, Ky., for publication of The Enterprise and the Owsley County Courier and the papers will go forward to subscribers as usual. In the meanwhile we ask our friends to bear with us, until we can have the machinery overhauled.—Beattyville Enterprise.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 8.—Vincent Leodowski and Nettie Kuberski took out a marriage license August 25, 1931. They began house keeping. Five little bundles from heaven brightened their home in the ensuing seven and a half years. The other day Vincent, seeking final citizenship papers, stumbled onto a great truth. There is more to this marriage business, he was told, than just taking out a license. Well, it's all fixed now. Vincent and Nettie dug out the document issued in 1931, and a minister did the rest.

West Liberty Defeats Cannel City

In one of the most exciting and thrilling basketball games played on the local floor this season, the Red Devils, coached by Carl Burton, defeated the Cannel City Raiders, coached by Wendell Nickell by the score of 17-15. The thrills began when the whistle first blew and ended with the final blow. Coach Burton was seeking revenge to avenge a victory of the "Raiders" earlier in the season. The result of the game was in doubt until the final whistle blew.

PTA

The Parent-Teachers Association held its regular monthly meeting, February 13, at 7 p.m.

Due to the absence of most of the officers the business was omitted. The program was directed by Mrs. Grace Allen, sponsor senior class.

Life of Lincoln—Victoria Cottle
Oh Captain My Captain!—Opal Caudill

At the conclusion of the program a vote of the various home rooms was taken. Mrs. Burton won in the primary grades; Mrs. Byrd won in the intermediate grades; Mr. Burton in junior high school; and Mr. Bach in the senior high school.

Bank will Sponsor Speaking Contest—Only High School Seniors Eligible.

A county-wide speaking contest is now open to all high school seniors who wish to participate. The contest is sponsored by the Commercial Bank of West Liberty and the Kentucky Bankers Association. All high school seniors are urged to enter, and an attempt to solicit the aid of all high school principals of this county has been made.

Each high school will conduct a speaking contest for its own seniors, and will decide upon the winners not later than March 17. These winners will participate in a county contest which will be conducted not later than April 21. The subject to be discussed is "The Value of the Bank to the Community." The county prizes are: $15 first, $10 second, $5 third.

At some time after May 4 the regional tournament will be held at Hazard, Kentucky. Worthwhile prizes not yet determined, will be given.

The state contest will be held at Lexington, Kentucky, and the winner will receive $600. The second prize is $100, third $50, and four other contestants will receive $10 each.

Third Grade

The third grade is preparing an original play, "The Music Master" to be given in chapel, Friday, February 17.

Wednesday, February 10, the Tigers basketball team defeated the Wildcat with a score of 8-2. This evens the record of the two teams since the Wildcats won the week before.

"We are glad to welcome" Betty Tyler back to school after a prolonged illness.

The class has completed a health unit. Thursday they presented a movie, "A Good Health Show," to the first and second grades and to Dr. Byrd and Miss Noble. They are now making a movie of great musicians.

THE WPA EDUCATION PLAN

Whoever sponsored the WPA Education plan,

Surely was an intelligent woman or man.

But still after all it could never have stood,

Had not Uncle Sam been so liberal and good.

So the teachers who are in charge of these schools,

So with patience he explains the hard difficult things

That without him these folks could never obtain.

There are some people in this neighborhood

Who try to fight our night school 'tis plainly understood

But we just consider that they are such a f---

And do our very best and try to keep cool.

But I'm for the night school

Out here at Woodsbend

And hope it will continue

Until others we can win.

EULA MAE CAUDILL, Woodsbend, Ky.

HILL BILLY SCHOOL

In all my life I know full-well, I'd never, never learned to spell

Had not I been able to attend

The night school here at Woodsbend.

Our teacher, Mr. Carpenter

Has lots of patience with us here

We laugh and talk and tease him so

But never can we stall him though.

I guess he thinks us a dumb old crew

So many things we never knew

He tells them to us so very plain

And has to tell them again and again.

Sometimes he treats us on apples and candy

And then you know we think him dandy

So hurrah! for our night school here at Woodsbend

For it's really a pleasure to attend.

RUTH CAUDILL, Woodsbend, Ky.

THE WILDLIFE OF KENTUCKY

On Thursday, February 23, Dr. Wilfred A. Welter of Morehead State Teachers College is presenting in colored motion pictures the Wildlife of the Mountains of Kentucky. There will be two showings—one at two o'clock at the Rex Theatre and the other at the high school auditorium at seven o'clock. The price of admission will be 15c and 25c.

The show is being sponsored by the Biology Club, and the proceeds will be used to purchase an aquarium and some much needed laboratory equipment.

It is hoped that all the students will take advantage of this opportunity to see many of our wild plants and animals in their natural haunts.

MATTHEW

Feb. 14.—Our community was again horribly grief stricken on Monday of last week when news was received that Green Nickell, a WPA worker had been instantly killed while at his work. His death was caused by the giving away of a gravel pit under which he had walked to get a drink. When the pit gave way ton after ton of gravel instantly poured through on him. On the same day of the week and almost the same hour of the day two weeks previous the neighbors had stood at the death bed of his father. It seemed that the death of Green was a much greater shock though for he was in the prime of life and from all appearances a very robust and healthy man. He leaves to mourn his departure, a loving companion and 5 small, sweet children.

Rev. J. F. Walters, our pastor, conducted church services here from Wednesday night through Sunday. He was assisted Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Hobert McGuire and Carl Scott of Grayson. Much interest was shown and many wonderful messages were delivered.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Nickell and family of Ezel came in Monday to attend the funeral of their brother, Green. While here two of the children took very sick and they had to remain the entire week before the children were able to be taken home.

TOBACCO SEED

A good crop of tobacco comes from good, stout plants and it takes good pump seed to grow them. Start your next crop right by buying good seed. I have the following varieties to offer my customers this year:

CANADIAN WHITE BURLEY—Extra early, very thrifty and cures bright. Matures in 70 days. This is the original strain and pure.

IMPROVED STAND-UP BURLEY—Light type. Produces a very colorful tobacco on most any land. Real smokers from top to bottom of stalk. Is early and yields well.

STAND-UP WHITE BURLEY No. 16—Originated at the Ky. Experiment Station and grows well anywhere. A nice thrifty plant that matures early and cures well.

PEPPER—A selection of White Burley that produces very sound tobacco of the smoker type. Has good weight and plenty of color.

YELLOW BURLEY—Light type. Originated from a smooth light weight plant found in my Old Yellow Burley. Has all the good qualities of the old strain with a smooth wide leaf and 10 days earlier.

YELLOW BURLEY—Produces smoking tobacco of good weight, but requires good soil. Yellow Burley is as near a perfect plant as can be produced. All seed are re-cleaned and tested. Price $1.00 per ounce, 50c per half ounce, Postpaid. Mail Orders filled promptly. W. F. HERBERT, Maysville, Ky.
